Sheriff May and Deputies Stop Automobile — Three Men Charged with Robbing Albert Norton's House Near Abbeville Sunday, Arrested.

J. L. Howerton, T. J. Howerton and A. L. Byrd, charged with entering the residence of Albert Norton, 12 miles northeast of Abbeville, Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, and taking some $6,000 from a trunk, were arrested on Headland Avenue at 4:30 o'clock this morning by Sheriff John A. May and deputies and are being detained in the county jail pending the arrival of officers from Abbeville.

At the county jail, the three men are charged with robbery, and their names appear on the docket as follows: J. L. Howerton, A. L. Birdshaw, T. J. Howerton. These names, however, according to other information, appear to be erroneous.

Sheriff May was notified of the robbery by Abbeville officers, and was asked to use his efforts toward apprehending the men. The Sheriff, John May, and Deputies Ross Hornsby and Talnage May, took up a favorable position on Headland Avenue, near the residence of A. D. Grant, and awaited the arrival of the automobile from Abbeville. No resistance was offered by the occupants of the automobile, there being six persons in the machine. Three of the occupants were permitted to go, the Sheriff being satisfied that they had no part in the robbery.

The exact amount recovered, is not known exactly, as some of the packages, which were found intact, were not broken open by Sheriff May. Money in packages that had been broken open, was counted. It is believed the amount will reach nearly $6,000. The funds were placed in a local bank for safe keeping, until the arrival of the proper authorities.

The Details.

The following telegram received from Abbeville by The Eagle today gives some of the details: The robbery was committed Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock while Norton was away from home, attending church. The house was entered, a trunk was opened, and the money, $6,000, was taken out. Norton who is a farmer, lives 12 miles northeast of Abbeville. The boys passed through Abbeville last night about 12 o'clock, where they engaged an automobile and kept going. The two Howerton boys are grand sons of T. J. Howerton, of this place, and Byrd, is a son of Dr. Byrd, once prominent citizen of Houston county.

Various rumors have been circulated on the streets one being that the Howerton boys had a right to the money, or that they had some part of it coming to them from the division of an estate. Whether these rumors have any foundation of truth is not known. Albert Norton, from whom the money is said to have been stolen, is the step father of the two Howerton boys. Norton, it is said, has figured in the courts of Henry county, it being reported that he was convicted of some charge on one occasion.

No Clemency For Frank If This Law Passes In Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 3.—Leo M. Frank will have to spend the remainder of his life in the penitentiary if a bill introduced by Senator Eakes, is passed by the legislature. A clause in the bill provides that no man whose sentence is commuted from death to imprisonment shall receive further executive clemency. This part of the measure was inserted after Frank's sentence had been commuted by Governor Slaton and was aimed especially to cover his case.

HOUSES STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Lightning struck the residence of S. J. Williams, East Main street today, and knocked a few planks off the house, but nobody was injured. The Presbyterian church was also struck but no damage was sustained.

Lightning struck the house in which J. A. Rollins lives on East Main street today about eleven o'clock, no one was injured but several members of the family were considerably jarred by the shock, and several large holes were knocked in the roof.

MEN MAKE BOND.

W. S. Teet, of near Opp, and Jesse R. Vickery, of near River Falls, were arraigned before Federal Commissioner C. S. Tutwiler on charges of illicit distilling today, and were each bound over under $200 bonds to wait action of the federal grand jury.

Various rumors have been circulated on the streets one being that the Howerton boys had a right to the money, or that they had some part of it coming to them from the division of an estate. ### IDENTIFYING CLOTHING OF EASTLAND VICTIMS.

IDENTIFYING PROPERTY OF EASTLAND VICTIMS.

Hundreds of the bodies in the temporary morgue in the Second Regiment armory in Chicago, victims of the Eastland disaster are still unidentified. All day long a steady stream passes before the bodies, while in this little room, others look at their things and other belongings of the victims in the hope of identifying them. Many of the bodies were recovered still clutching tightly the picnic basket, suit case, tennis racket or clothing being taken along on the pleasure trip. A pitiful sight is the number of dolls and toy parakees carried by the little kiddies, picked up in the muddy waters.

TO OPPOSE DIVIDED SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 3.—It became known last night that a propaganda will be launched today against a split session.

It is reported that Representative W. K. P. Wilson, of Mobile, will offer a resolution in the house placing that body on record for final adjournment at the end of the present session.

Representative Wilson said this morning that, after he offers the resolution he will ask for a suspension of rules for its immediate passage and will call for the yeas and nays vote to place members on record.

$1000 to Play No Part.

The subcommittee of the house judiciary committee, investigating charges against Secretary of State John P. Phifer, it is understood, has decided that the matter of paying J. H. Nunnelle $1000 to withdraw from the race shall play no part in the proceedings on the ground that the act was committed before Mr. Phifer was secretary of state. Several other members of the judiciary committee, however, do not take kindly to this report, and intimate that the subject must be considered by the entire committee and that two reports may be forthcoming.

Physicians at Montgomery.

Many physicians are in Montgomery to attend the hearing on the public health bill before the house committee on education at 3 o'clock.

To Offer Amendment.

When the tax bill is considered in the senate, an amendment will be offered providing that the senate shall confirm the governor's appointments of the state board of equalization. It is claimed that a good majority of senators are pledged to the amendment.

Go to Tuskegee.

In a special car over the Atlantic and West Point, about fifteen legislators went to Tuskegee this morning to inspect the Tuskegee institute. They will be dinner guests of Representative H. P. Merritt.

To Invite McLaurin.

Senator John L. McLaurin, of South Carolina, author of the warehouse bill in operation in S. Carolina, Georgia, Texas and Louisiana, probably will be invited to address the Alabama legislature within 15 days. Senator Kline of Calhoun, has introduced McLaurin's warehouse bill and a resolution asking South Carolina to speak on the measure.

Consideration of the license bill will occupy the house tomorrow and it is hoped the bill will be passed by night. A fight is in prospect to levy license on beer, soda and soft drinks.

In the senate, appropriations and judiciary bills are on tomorrow's calendar.

BIRMINGHAM AFTER HUGE U. S. PLANT FOR RIFLE MANUFACTURE

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 3.—A campaign to get congress to build a huge plant for the manufacture of rifles and small arms ammunition at Birmingham has been started here. Already the support of certain members of the Alabama delegation at Washington has been obtained for the plan and the unanimous and aggressive support of the entire delegation is expected.

So far those who are behind the plan in Birmingham have been working "under cover." It is known, however, that one of the leading civic organizations in Birmingham and certain influential Alabama citizens at Birmingham, Sylacauga and elsewhere, have actively begun work on the plan. Several secret meetings have been held in Birmingham by those who are interested in the plan, but announcement of the plans will not be made until later.

However, an aggressive campaign to get congress to build a plant here for the manufacture of rifles and small arms ammunition will be made, not only by the civic organizations and citizens of Birmingham and Alabama, but the active support of the Alabama delegation at Washington is expected to help the plan along.

It is stated that the plans of the war department for its new military policy include the creation of further government plants for the manufacture of rifles and

No. Six-Sixty-Six

This is a grandstand stand for the fair, and is the best of its kind in the South.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 2.—Consideration of the Bonner Sunday blue law will be taken up by the senate when that body meets again, Tuesday morning.

The bill, which is designed to prohibit the playing on Sunday of any baseball game where admission is charged, or the operation on Sunday of motion picture shows where an entrance fee is charged, and also would close pool rooms on Sunday, appears on the senate calendar as the special order of business at 3 o'clock of the twenty-seventh legislative day.

It is possible that this bill, which is the second on the same general subject to be introduced by the senator from Wilcox, will be defeated, although it now seems probable that it merely will be amended so as not to apply to cities, but will leave the matter of Sunday amusements to the governing bodies of municipalities of a designated size.

There are more than a half dozen bills in the house and senate to regular cotton warehouses, and the granting of warehouse receipts. The bill prepared by the Alabama Bankers' Association to make cotton warehouses receipts negotiable instruments and absolute evidence of ownership of the cotton in warehouse represented in the committee on Finance and taxation in the senate, and a hearing on it has been set for Wednesday.

Most of the members of the house and senate will admit that they have little knowledge or information on the subject. They are anxious to learn, and the movement started by Senator Kline of Anniston to have John L. McLaurin, warehouse commissioner of South Carolina, address the legislature on the subjects embodied in Mr. Kline's new bill has met with general approval.

Davis Campbell, of Columbia, was here today on business.

O. M. Murphy one of Houston's best farmers, was in Dothan this morning.

STILLS ARE RAISED.

Deputy Marshal Fred Shuman and Deputy Collector Ruffalo raided two illicit stills in Covington county yesterday, destroying the outfits and a quantity of contraband liquor. No arrests have been made.

The above is the strongest aggregation on the road today and was picked by the Association for the fair in preference to all the others.

The Y. W. C. A. on The Joy Zone.

(By Margaret T. Haden)

From the day the San Francisco fair opened in February, the national board of the Young Women's Christian association has been vigilantly engaged in two pieces of work for visiting women. One—to offer information, rest and refreshment to the stranger—was a matter of organization along more or less well beaten trails. The other—to discover fields of useful service to the lonely and unprotected women employees on the fair grounds—taxed the imagination and initiative of the staff of secretaries in the association's own special building. And of all these the hardest task was with the girls of the joy zone, who both live and do their turns in an atmosphere of obvious hardships and temptation.

The joy zone is a street almost straight, about three-quarters of a mile long where the crowds go of an evening for entertainment of a peculiarly light order. The person with adaptable enthusiasm can enjoy a trip in a freaks, a vision of creation, and a hot waffle, all in a brief half hour. It is not without significance that the zone is situated at the opposite end of the fair grounds from the palaces of fine arts and education, and that its most ubiquitous sign is, "Smile, it's painless."

Girls are employed everywhere. Some are cashiers, some dive for a living, some, dressed in Chinese costumes, sell candy and chewing gum, some are Egyptian princesses, some are dwarfs. Then there are waitresses, shooting gallery attendants, rough rider maidens, living dolls and myriads of dancers of all kinds and descriptions.

There are between 300 and 400 young women on the zone, ranging in age from 16 to 35. Some of them live in rough quarters built in back of the concessions, others live in rooms off the grounds. They get their meals at the cheapest and most convenient counter. That overstrain, exploitation and temptation crowd every day of their lives is not an isolated criticism of an isolated amusement center. It is the constant accompaniment of commercialized recreation and the exposition merely lends glamour and intensity.

Clubhouse Under Scenic Railway.

Concessionaries were at first inclined to resent the Y. W. C. A. as a "second rate boarding house" and a "third rate prayer meeting" organized for systematic intrusion. But by sincere efforts to see the employee's side as well as the girls' side, resentment was replaced by a very practical sort of co-operation. Upon invitation of the concessionaries, a clubhouse was built under the tracks of the scenic railway for the exclusive use of the zone girls. There they can secure a 12-cent lunch and rest afterward. They can have hot baths; they can come off an afternoon or evenings to read or sew or just plain sit.

If the girls on the zone seemed to receive more attention than those in the palaces it was because of the pressing nature of the problems in the amusement section. The needs of the palace girls are just as real though they have more of a social and work ed from every state in the union and work at jobs that require every degree of training and intelligence. They demonstrate processes of manufacture; they distribute literature and interest prospective buyers; they make overalls and try phonograph records; they lecture in movie theaters and bake cakes. Every exhibitor has thought of some way to utilize the charm and ability of a young woman.

Attracted to San Francisco by the alluring prospect of change and higher wages, these girls, most of them from a distance, are scattered about the city in boarding houses, without friends or while recreation of a delicate sort is too insistent to be always avoided. Realizing this fact and knowing her own psychology, one young woman pays for dinner in advance at her boarding house so that when the undesirable invitation to dine comes she will have something besides an empty purse and hungry body to back up her refusal. Unfortunately, such foresight is rare, and the exposition atmosphere of excitement and relaxation does not tend to increase it.

Showing the Girls the Show
Of course, in order to counteract loneliness and its dangers, the greatest stress is laid upon the social side of the work. The trained worker as a sort of a silent partner, to arrange parties and good times. Sometimes they are held in the association building, sometimes on the beaches or parks. Club women of the city have been interested in the fact that many of the girls have never had time to see the exhibits outside the buildings in which they are employed and are taking groups through the exposition. The exhibitors, themselves, in the palace of education, are devoting their noon hours to explaining the work of the national child labor committee and the children's bureau to employees.

With December 4 in mind, the local exposition is added to the unemployed, evening classes in stenography and salesmanship are held in the Y. W. C. A. building. Preparations are also being made to have new jobs ready as soon as the old ones are gone and to provide for the stranded by co-operation with permanent agencies.

ALIKE IN THEIR FEELINGS

Sample of the Unhappy Condition Created by the Great Conflict in Europe.

They were sitting in a cafe near Washington square. On the table between them lay a "war extra" with staring headlines. The big, blond man, a typical Teuton, was talking loudly with many gestures; the small, dark man, unmistakably Gallic, listened—save for an occasional flash of the eye—with apparent calm. Two later comers at a nearby table watched them.

"Do you understand German?" asked one. "Can you tell me what the big fellow is saying?"

"I can make out most of it," replied his companion, "and I know who the men are: Johann Schulz and Pierre Dumont."

"Jove!" exclaimed the first, as the big man leaned forward and pounded the table vehemently, "he'll be pitching into the little chap next."

"Oh, no," said the other spectator, "the two agree to a dot. Johann is calling the Germans 'Jaune' and 'Diebe' and 'verdammt Schweine' and about every other abusive name he can lay tongue to. Queer, isn't it, when he can speak hardly a word of any other language but German? But, you see, he happens to be an Alsatian. His national hymn of hate is directed accordingly. —New York Evening Post.

PROFITS OF SHEEP MEN CUT

Depredations of Dogs Cause Immense Annual Loss to the Raisers of the Animals.

Thirty-six of the states of the Union are classified as agricultural states. The United States department of agriculture has recently completed an estimate of the number of sheep killed by dogs every year. The estimate is based upon figures collected for 1913. It shows that in the 36 agricultural states the annual loss totals 107,760. Ohio's loss reaches 15,500 yearly; Indiana, 12,000; Iowa, 11,000; Kentucky, 6,600; Illinois, 1,920 and other states in proportion.

The total loss compared with the number of sheep shown by the 1910 census seems small. It is less than one per cent of the sheep population of the country. However, that sheep grower who is getting a return of five per cent on his investment, taking one year with another, is doing well. This makes a loss of one per cent loom up dangerously. Nor is the loss of one per cent from dog depredations the worst feature of the situation. The dread of what dogs may do to the flock is preventing any increase in sheep keeping. To the question, "What causes are preventing an increase in sheep raising?" 551 of 594 growers answered "Dogs!"

TIGERS KILLED FROM CAGE

Method in Use in Persia Uniformly Successful, With Little Danger to the Hunter.

The people of different countries have different ways of hunting the tiger. Traps, pitfalls, spring guns and nets are called into play. The Chinese are said to employ the mirror to lead the animal into a trap. The tiger's curiosity is excited when he sees his image in the glass, and he immediately proceeds to investigate the mystery. The Persian manner of conducting the hunt is more sportmanlike.

A spherical, strongly woven bamboo cage, with intervals of a few inches between the bars, is erected in some spot near the haunts of the tiger. This cage is firmly and securely picketed to the ground. Inside, a man provided with several sharp and powerful stabbing spears, or with a keen and pointed sword, takes his post at night, with a dog or a goat as his companion. There he wraps himself in his blanket and goes to sleep.

In due time the tiger makes his appearance, the man is waked by his four-footed companion, and, after vainly snuffing and prowling round the cage to find an entrance, the tiger rears against the walls. The man instantly takes advantage of the brute's unprotected position, and with a resolute stroke of the spear or sword puts him to death.

ASKS ENGLAND TO ECONOMIZE

The Standard of Living at Present is Much Too High, Says Lloyd-George.

During the budget debate the chancellor of the exchequer returned to the point which he made with great force the other day—the vital necessity that the people of this country should put by their savings for the demands which will be made upon them later.

Hundreds of millions will be wanted to finance the war. There is no chance of getting enough revenue by merely taxing the rich. The nation's savings will be indispensable for the coming loans. Saving, therefore, is not a question of meanness but of patriotism, and the time has come for a return to the old system of simple living. Better face it at once, said the chancellor. The standard has been steadily going up. It will have to come down.

"Plain living and high thinking are no more," wrote Wordsworth in 1802 in a famous sonnet. Mr. Lloyd-George said nothing of high thinking, but he earnestly begged the nation to be wise in time, to return to plain living, to realize that the glittering prosperity of the moment was purely artificial, and to be sure that a period of collapse would most certainly and inevitably come. —London Telegraph.

BEWARE THAT POWDER PUFF!

It May Give You Lumbago, Appendicitis, or the Pips, Says a Philadelphia Physician.

More trouble in store for the summer girl! They've made her the butt of all sorts of jokes, patrolled the beach and park with cops, regulated the size and style of her bathing suit—and now she mustn't borrow a powder puff.

Doctor Ziegler, of the department of health and charities, says so. It's insanitary and might spread all sorts of diseases, including lumbago, appendicitis and pips. Inasmuch as the average summer girl would rather have all three of these ailments than a shiny nose, the advice probably will go unheeded.

Nevertheless, Doctor Ziegler places the borrowed powder puff with the common drinking cup, the common towel and the common bathtub in the category of "summer hotel evils to be avoided." He treats of them in a bulletin to vacationists about to leave the city. —Philadelphia North American.

Test your taste on Camels! Compare them with cigarettes you find you like best. They can't bite, pack your throat or leave any unpleasant cigarette after-taste. Smoke them liberally.

Cost of tobacco blended in Camels prohibits the use of premiums or coupons. Smokers appreciate Camel quality and do not expect them.

WAYS OF SIR EDWARD GREY

British Statesman Declared to Be "Insular in His Tastes" and Devoted to Fishing.

Sir Edward Grey has traveled little; it is jealously said that he made his first visit to Paris when he accompanied the king there a short time ago. Alfred G. Gardner writes in the Atlantic. He is not a linguist; he is wholly insular in his tastes, almost unknown in society, much more devoted to fishing than to politics; speaks little, and then in the plainest and most unadorned fashion; is indifferent to the currents of modern life, and turns for his literature to the quietism of Wordsworth, Walton and White's "Selborne." Is rarely seen in the house, and then seems to stray in, as if were, like a visitor from another planet. And in spite of all this he exercises an almost hypnotic influence on parliament. The detachment of his mind, the Olympian aloofness and serenity of his manner, the transparent honesty of his aims, his entire freedom from artifice and from appeals to the "gallery," all combine to give him a certain isolation and authority that are unique. His speech has the quality of finality. Mr. Asquith wins by sheer mental superiority; Lloyd-George wins by the swiftness and suppleness of his evolutions; Sir Edward Grey wins by his mere presence, and the sense of high purpose and firmness of mind which that presence conveys. It is a favorite jest of his enemies that no man can be quite so wise as Sir Edward Grey looks.

"Grabscow gives his wife a new motor car every year or two." "What becomes of the old cars?" "They are passed on to poor relations. Why, second and third cousins of Mrs. Grabscow own motor cars now."

ANOTHER CASE OF WORRY.

"A dollar doesn't go as far as it used to." "That's probably true, but I've noticed that people are trying to travel twice as far and twice as fast as they used to, also."

HIS WORKS.

"There goes one of our standard authors." "What books has he written?" "None. He makes flags."

THOUGHTLESS COMPARISON.

LATEST AMERICAN VICTIM OF GERMAN U BOAT.

© S. S. LEELANAW.

The American freighter Leelanaw, which according to despatches from London, was torpedoed by a German submarine off Kirkwall, Scotland and sunk, on July 25. The commander of the German vessel ordered Capt. Delk and his crew of thirty two to abandon their ship and sent her to the bottom. The captain and the crew took to their life boats and reached Kirkwall in safety. The Leelanaw was owned by the Harby Steamship company of New York and was enroute from Archangel, Russia to Belfast, Ireland with a cargo of flax. She had carried a cargo of cotton from the United States to Archangel previous to loading with the flax. The German government in a manifest issued on April 18, declared flax a contraband of war.

GERMANY MAY SEND NO REPLY TO LATEST NOTE FROM WILSON

Washington, Aug. 3.—Germany will send no reply to the latest note of the Wilson administration dealing with the submarine warfare before the latter part of this month, if at all. Ambassador Gerard has no informed Secretary of State Lansing. In the meanwhile it is expected here that there will be an attempt by Germany to renew the unofficial negotiations previously rejected by President Wilson to see whether an amicable agreement of the points under dispute cannot be reached. While this is going on Germany will stand by and will watch with interest the exchange between Washington on the question of freedom of the seas.

It was expected here that the British note, which is to supplement last week's memorandum, will be handed to Ambassador Page in London within the next 24 hours.

Dr. Warren, of Noma, Fla. was here today on business.

Will Roberts, of Buick Farm, went to Marianna, Fla. today.

FACT

Local Evidence.

Evidence that can be verified. Fact is what we want. Opinion is not enough. Opinions differ. Here's a Dothan fact. You can test it.

C. C. Dempsey, Western Union telegraph inspector, 205 S. Lena St., Dothan, says: "I had been having a lot of trouble with my back. If I bent over, it was hard for me to get up again. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and black specks floated before my eyes. Headaches and dizzy spells were also very frequent. I got a couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills at McCallum's Drug Store and they gave me great relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dempsey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Use it like a cold cream and dry Eczema eruptions right up.

The moment you apply hold-sulphur to an itching or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a renowned dermatologist.

This remarkable sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt relief, even in aggravated Eczema, that it is a never-ending source of amusement to physicians.

For many years hold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasite-destroying properties and nothing has ever been found to take its place in relieving irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet in every instance, it immediately subdues the itching irritation and breaks the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again manifests itself.

Any good druggist will supply an ounce of hold-sulphur, which should be applied to the affected parts like the ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the Eczema is accompanied with burning itching.

THE best Pneumatic Tire is only as strong as its weakest part.

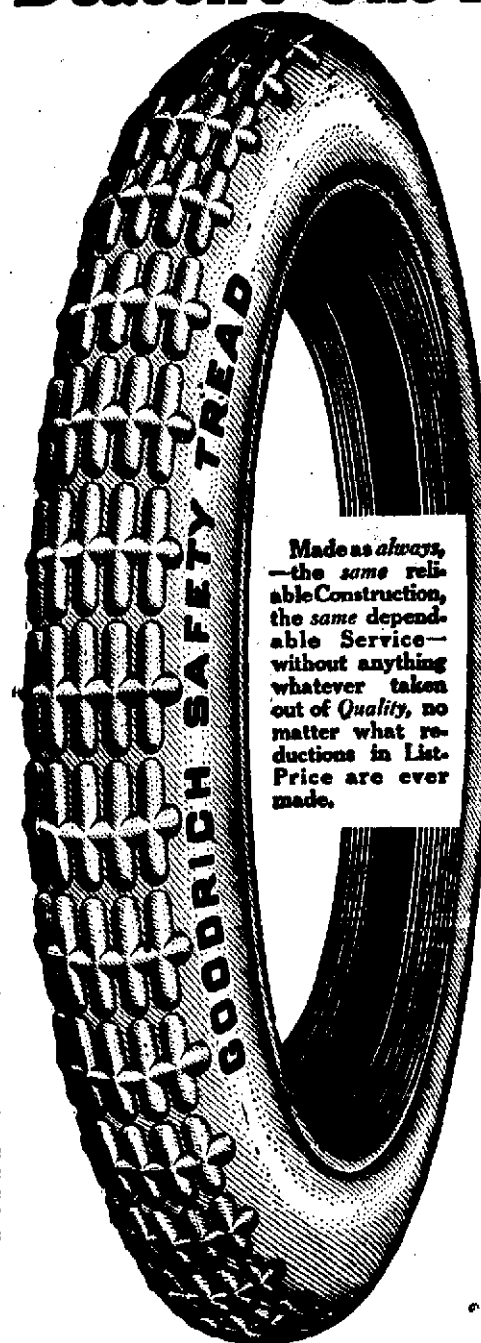

Strengthening its strongest parts is as useless as putting a fifth Wheel on a Wagon.

Yet this is often done to provide "Selling-feature" and "Talking Point."

The weakest part of every Pneumatic Tire is its Walls or Sides, not its Tread,—its Cotton Fabric or "Stocking," not its Rubber "Sole."

No price would be too high to pay for a material that, replacing Cotton in the Walls of Pneumatic Tires, would last as long as the Goodrich Rubber Tread could be made to wear.

Neither Silk, nor Linen, nor any other known Fabric yet discovered is so good, for this purpose, as Cotton,—and choice long-fibred Cotton is the best material that money can buy for Tire Fabric.

Made as always,—the same reliable Construction, the same dependable Service—without anything whatever taken out of Quality, no matter what reductions in List-Price are ever made.

WE use nothing less in Goodrich Tires, and test every foot of it up to 380 lbs. to the Square Inch, before we percolate it with the most adhesive Rubber Compound ever made for this purpose.

We then shape this rubberized Fabric into Tires, with scrupulous care to have the tension on each square inch of fabric precisely the same,—that tension being controlled by a machine as sensitive as the eye, and infinitely more precise than the handwork of the most skilled Operative could make it.

To do this work we have the most highly-trained men in the Rubber Industry,—trained in the Precision that practice and our 45-year EXPERIENCE make perfect.

Safety in Ship-building.

New York World.

In connection with the Eastland disaster, Secretary Redfield explains that the Federal Steamship Inspection Service has no power to pass on the construction of vessels. Obviously in this respect the United States laws are as faulty as the boat that turned turtle was unseaworthy.

Here was a ship notoriously of faulty design, generally known boats in local waters. After the owners had tried to remedy but had failed to correct. If the Federal inspectors found that the vessel was sound, that she carried a full crew and the required life-saving equipment, apparently there was nothing for them to do but issue the usual certificate.

After the burning of the General Slocum there was a spurt of activity in official circles and a general overhauling of excursion strengthened the laws governing life-saving equipment. The Eastland disaster has now claimed its hundreds of victims, half a dozen investigations are under way, and the public is informed by the Secretary of Commerce that any vessel, however defective in design under the Federal laws can be used for passenger traffic if it fulfils certain minor requirements. It may not be able to keep afloat even at its own peril.

and it carries enough life-boats. United States law permits it to be used for excursion parties.

Evidently we learn nothing about safety in water transportation and ship-building except by the needless sacrifice of human life.
